YOUR HEALTH

(By JOHN B. HUBER, A. M., M. D.)

Give him six—well straight he will.—Shakespeare.

What to Do for Spring Fever.

Come spring we ought to do with our bodies just as a good housewife does with her house. She has a spring cleaning; so ought we also as to our individual constitutions. In other words, we ought to renew the physiological, the hygienic life. First of all we must see that the emunctories—the bowels, the kidneys and the skin—are acting properly. This assured, in most cases all the rest shall be added to you—physically anyway. Besides one must rise betimes, bathe well, eat slowly three meals of wholesome food the day; be in the sun and the open air a great deal; drink generously of water at least between meals; sleep at least eight hours and get some exercise every day. The combination of pure air, water and food means pure blood; and this in turn means well balanced metabolism—a medical term for the conversion in the body of oxygen and wholesome well-diluted foodstuffs into healthy organs, muscles, bones and fibres.

Then, as a good many people will not be happy unless they are taking medicine, any druggist will make up the following "Spring Tonic": One half ounce each of fluid extract of condurango and of tincture of rhubarb; and two ounces of compound syrup of sarsaparilla. A teaspoonful in water before each meal.

There are at least three diseases that we have to guard against, particularly in springtime. The first of these is spring typhoid. Second is spring cholera, a severe and oftentimes fatal kind of diarrhoea which parallels with the melting snows. From these snows there are washed into wells, brooks, and other streams all kinds of impurities that have collected along the banks during the successive snowfalls of the preceding winter. Another unhealthiness at this time is the spring cold which comes about thus: 1. The body becomes susceptible by reason of the abrupt changes from cold to warm weather in the early morning of the year. 2. There is the dust which the spring winds raise, and which contains many impurities, but especially the germs of consumption, bronchitis, grippe and pneumonia. Predisposed people, breathing that dust, are like to come down with one of another of those diseases.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

What to Drink.

What is best to drink at meal time, or is it best not to drink anything?

Answer—Some fluid at meals is always right, water, coffee (2 cups in 24 hours) also, if desired, tea (2 cups in 24 hours), and milk. One should get at least six tumblersful of fluid all told into the system every day; no food is ever right absorbed into the system that is not thoroughly liquidified.

A Ragged Tongue.

I have a very ragged tongue. At all times it gets full of white blisters. It often splits at the top. And there is a little growth on the side of it. It looks sometimes as if it were going to bleed. I have been told it comes from my teeth being too close together.

Answer—Such a trouble may be due to the irritation of a rough or broken tooth; or there may be a syphilitic ulcer; or the cause may be chronic liver disease, diabetes, dyspepsia or cancer. The matter may therefore be serious. See a doctor about it at once. If you were a man I should greatly fear cancer.

Those Big Promises.

We had been to a wedding the other night and were talking it all over on our return. From the particular we passed gradually to the general.

"The whole trouble," said the Authorman, "is that we expect too much."

"Trouble with what?" said Molly.

"With marriage," said the Authorman. "Now take the marriage ceremony, it's a perfect crystallization of our false attitude towards the whole thing. What is it the bride promises—let me see—to obey him and serve him—love and honor him—"

"She didn't say 'obey'!" broke in Molly. "Didn't you notice?"

"So?" said the Authorman. "Well, that's to be expected. Obey and serve are the only two things she could promise to do and so she leaves 'obey' out."

"What do you mean by that?"

"Just what I say. She could promise to serve and obey and keep it, if she tried hard enough. But what does a promise to love and honor mean? Nobody can promise that. You can only promise to honor anyone as long as he remains honorable. And as for loving—you can't promise to love anyone tomorrow."

"But he didn't justify himself."

"Then I suppose you justify all this affinity business," said the Authorman's wife tartly.

"Certainly not," said the Authorman. "You can promise to love a person forever but you can promise to be faithful to them."

"Can you promise not to fall in love with anyone else?" wondered Molly.

"Yes," said the Authorman. "I think you can—or almost. You can't promise not to be attracted to anyone else but you can promise to run away from any such attraction."

"How about the man's end of it?" put in the cynic.

"To love and to cherish until death us do part. Well, what I said about love holds good with him too and as for cherishing—he can promise to be kind and faithful and a good provider, but to me 'cherish' means something more than that."

"You can't have happiness but you're got to work for it," said the Authorman.

"You don't like the way I translate 'And so they were happy together afterwards' to you, little sister," said the Authorman. "But I don't mean folks can't be. What I mean is that it would be better if people didn't expect quite so much and especially if they realized that you can't let yourself slip into selfishness and self pleasing and expect the promises of the marriage ceremony to keep love for you. If you want to be loved and honored you've got to keep on being worthy of love and honor."

"How about the man's end of it?" put in the cynic.

Council of National Defense

III. Practical Patriots

(By Frederic J. Haskin).

Washington, D. C., April 28.—Julius

Rosenwald of Chicago, the member of the advisory commission to the Council of National Defense, whose special duty is to advise in regard to the purchase of supplies, and his first assistant, Charles E. Eisenman, are making refutations of the idea that the American business man is too engrossed in his business to concern himself with ideals of patriotism. The entire advisory commission, for that matter, is proof that the American business man is ready to serve his country; but Mr. Rosenwald and Mr.

Eisenman express this attitude in their words as well as their work.

To them this emergency is an opportunity for the development of a new nationalism in the United States.

As Mr. Eisenman phrases it, America must discover a new soul; she must meet this situation in a new spirit.

The question each American must ask is not the old one, "What can my government do for me?" but the new one,

"What can I do for my government?"

Modern warfare, he observes, affords

a splendid opportunity for every one,

regardless of age, sex or occupation,

to do his bit for his country, and if the nation is to meet this emergency successfully, every one must do his bit in the spirit of a soldier.

Such a brief are the ideals of these men. Their practical task is the buying of textiles and organizing industries to fill the need of the government. It is one for which they are well fitted, as Mr. Rosenwald is president of Sears, Roebuck &amp; Co.,

and Mr. Eisenman is a successful manufacturer. To this task they are applying their ideals of patriotic service literally and vigorously.

"It would not be serious," says Mr.

Eisenman, "if some of these manufacturers should lose a few per cent of their profits; for the man that goes out and gets killed loses 100 per cent of all he's got."

Reasonable Profit Only.

So these men think that the manufacturers of the country should be glad to serve in the relatively safe and easy way of being satisfied with a reasonable profit, and they have told the manufacturers so. Their office is besieged for 10 hours a day

by men who want to supply the government with all its needs. Neither the self-seeking spirit nor the less than all-world fabric gets any consideration from these men, who combine patriotic ideals with the life-long knowledge of merchandise. They have reminde the manufacturers thru the trade journals that under the emergency legislation which congress has passed, the government has power to regulate factories and run them.

They do not believe, however, that it is going to be necessary for the government to do so. Most of the manufacturers with whom they have come in contact are willing to "do the fine big thing"—they have grasped the ideal of service which is the present

spirit of America.

Mr. Rosenwald personally believes that the opportunities of men who would speculate in a situation like the present one should be limited by law. Cotton prices, for example, he thinks are high enough and he believes that if they are made to rise thru speculation they should be brought down by proper legislation.

He admits that to clothe several million soldiers within the next year, and still enable women mills to fill their orders for civilian goods may be impossible. But the uniforms must be made first; he has tried to impress on the woolen man that he expects them to accept the government's orders at a reasonable profit, and let the civilian orders take second place. It is quite possible, he thinks, that we may have to start a national habit of wearing big clothes for a while—a sort of wear-your-last-year's suit—a rain movement. The shiny coat and frayed trousers may become a uniform of civilian patriotism.

Mr. Rosenwald believes that direct co-ordination of producer, manufacturer and the government is the method by which the present emergency needs can best be supplied quickly and cheaply.

Mr. Rosenwald is known by his gifts to many causes regardless of race or color, but his present undertaking is probably his greatest philanthropy. It is relatively easy for a millionaire to give away millions, but

BATAVIA GIRL LAW-PUPIL ENTERS OFFICE OF JUDGE

Miss Lena Gramme of Batavia will next week enter the office of former County Judge Frank G. Plain as law clerk. Miss Gramme has for 12 years been employed with an abstract company at Geneva and is considered one of the most capable and experienced persons in Kane county in abstract work.

About a year ago county officials and clerks in the Geneva court house and the abstract offices organized a law class and several have since become attorneys. Miss Gramme is a member of the law class and her work in Judge Plain's office will enable her to devote much time each day to the study of law.

FABYAN DATH CONTEST WILL END THIS EVENING

SCHOOL PUPILS AND ADULTS' ENDS IN GOOD COMPOSITIONS.

The double prize oath of allegiance contest of Col. George C. Fabyan of Geneva will close tonight. Only such compositions as are received in the mail or in person before midnight will be received at The Beacon-News office, which is acting as the collector in the contest.

There are two prizes, one of $25 for school pupils of Kane county only, and another of a similar amount open to the public. The contest is for the best brief form of oath to be taken by high school pupils pledging service to the nation.

In a few days the superintendents of Kane county schools will meet as judges of all compositions submitted and will select the two prize winners. The winning oath will be printed later.

DRESS GINGHAMS AGAIN ADVANCED

Cotton Goods Go Higher in Price—Ticking Is Up as Much as Three-Cents the Yard.

Raw Silks Go Much Higher on Heavy Reduction in Stocks in Japanese Centers.

This is what the Dry Goods Economist, a recognized authority in its field, has to say as to the conditions in textiles and allied lines:

In some lines complaint is heard as to retailers' unwillingness to operate. In others, sellers show no anxiety, for the simple reason that they are sold up far ahead of in view of the difficulty of forecasting the future. We need hardly say that the latter class are principally the mills making cottons, silks and wool and worsted dress goods. In the former class are manufacturers of merchandise, which is bought closer to the time of distribution, such as women's garments, neckwear, millinery, etc.

The most important development of the week has been the course of the rug and carpet auction. The catalog called for 105,000 bales, but at the beginning of the second day the announcement was made that the sale would be limited to the goods already made up and that production would be curtailed. This is directly attributed to the slow bidding and the fact that the prices realized were considerably below those previously named by the selling concern as the opening prices for next fall. The rug and carpet prices, generally, more especially as indicating that retailers regard present prices as tending to check sales of such goods as are more or less out of the necessity class.

Saves Money

Sweet as a Nut

In the cotton goods market strength is reflected in new advances. A prominent line of dress gingham has been advanced 11 cents a yard to take effect May 1st, and chambrays sold thru the same commission house have been similarly raised. A prominent brand of staple gingham has been placed at value, this, of course, being taken to mean an advance in the near future. Four-quarter bleached cottons have been raised one-half cent a yard. One leading brand of ticking has been advanced three cents a yard and others 10 per cent. Doubtless a factor in these advances is the call of the government for bids on 750,000 yards of tick.

Improvement in the crop outlook caused some weakness in the raw cotton market. There is also some talk of a maximum price being fixed by the government. Spot cotton sold on Wednesday of this week in New York at 20.95.

Raw Silk Much Higher.

If the silk field there has been an important development in the shape of an advance in Japanese silks. One importer figured this as amounting to 85 cents a pound within the last ten days. It is reported that the stock in Yokohama has been reduced from 10,000 bales to 5,000 and that much of the stock now on hand consists of odds and ends. Chinese silk is also high, prices in Canton being 10 cents a pound.

Buying of silk fabrics for the spring season is practically at an end. Some big sales of sports silks in very pronounced patterns have been made by retailers, who have bought these goods from manufacturers whose production on these styles was too large. Otherwise the silk fabrics market is unchanged.

Youth is so optimistic that it can look thru the smoke and carnage of a battlefield and see romance and a good time.

WANT WEEKLY AUTO SALES REPORT LAW

Aurora Automobile Club Votes to Ask Legislature for Some Such Measure.

The Aurora Automobile club at a meeting last evening decided to ask the Illinois legislature to amend the law pertaining to the licensing of automobiles, so as to provide for compiling all Illinois persons who sell automobiles to make a weekly report of their sales to Illinois residents to the secretary of state.

The club has since its organization been in a constant struggle to have the law amended so that it would enable the secretary of state to order prosecution of motor vehicle owners who do not pay state license. Club members think that there are some in Aurora who evade paying the state license fee.

URGES CITY TIN CAN CREMATORY FOR AURORA

Aurora needs a tin can crematory to rid the city of its tin cans. Attorney Charles Love said this morning. Other places where they have tried it out it has proven very successful, he says.

It is not necessary for the city to build the crematory. In some cities junk dealers have their own tin can crematories and operate them on a good paying basis. With the city heaving all tin cans to such a place Mr. Love thinks a crematory owned by private individuals would prosper.

The method of utilizing tin cans is melting them in a crematory until the tin runs together and into solid lumps. It is then sold to rolling mills at a good price.

Campaign for Aurora Hospital to Be Launched at Thursday Evening Dinner.

SEEK HOSPITAL SERMONS

The seven-day $100,000 campaign for the Aurora city hospital will be launched at a dinner in Memorial hall, Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The executive committee has issued dinner invitations to the workers of the organization, a small army. As the dinner will mark the formal opening of the campaign it will be in the nature of an inspiration meeting. Every worker is earnestly requested to be present.

Ex-United States Senator A. J. Hopkins and several other men of prominence have been asked to speak. The executive committee hopes that a number of special subscriptions to the fund may be announced at this time. E. T. Honey, associate campaign director of C. W. Lee who is now here, is expected from Kansas City, to take up the intensive work with the members of the organization.

The large clock being erected in front of the Memorial building will be ready for the opening of the campaign. The face of the clock is 14 feet in diameter. Each day the progress of the campaign will be shown on the clock. The teams doing the best work each day will have the honor of moving the hands or the clock, showing how much has been subscribed.

The Rev. F. E. Brandt of Trinity Episcopal church has asked the ministers to co-operate with the campaign fund committees and to make Sunday, May 6, Hospital day in the Aurora churches.

An enthusiastic meeting of the men and women captains was held last night in Memorial hall. The responsibility of the work is becoming more and more apparent to the workers now and they are taking hold with great determination.

General Chairman F. G. Adamson is devoting practically all of his time to the work and will do so until the campaign is over. Mr. Adamson is a big source of stimulation not only to the executive committee but the heads of all the committees.

REFER SALOON ORDINANCE

The city council, at a special session last night, voted to refer the saloon limit ordinance back to the committee on license, printing and ordinance for further amendments. After the measure had been read by City Clerk Groggins, the aldermen agreed that there should be changes made in several of the clauses. The councilmen desire an ordinance which will make it impossible for a saloon keeper to sell his license. Another meeting of the council will be held tonight when the amended ordinance will probably be taken up for passage.

He is one of the oldest members of the department.

WILL VISIT A Wednesday, May 2nd.

Dr. W. G. Coffey, the Oculist and Aurist, will make his next visit to Aurora, at the Bishop hotel, Wednesday, May 2. He will see patients from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. all day. Remember the date and send word to people you know suffering. He makes return visits every two weeks.

Dr. Coffey invites people suffering with any disease or weakness of the eyes, falling sight, or blindness, especially those suffering with weak eyes, eye strain, pain over eyes, redness, when the sight is just beginning to fall, and the doctors say you need glasses. Come and try this treatment one time free, and see how quick and complete it relieves the eyes. He has successfully treated many cases at Aurora that have suffered with granulated lids, wild hairs, ulcers, scums, growth on eyes, sore eyes, painful headaches from eyes, floating spots before eyes, cataracts, and falling sight from eye troubles. He says, don't let your eyes be operated on or put on glasses until you try his treatment one time free and see if it will help.

Dr. Coffey straightens crows' feet in three minutes, and the patient can talk to him while it is being done. He has straightened about 40 cases on his trip here. He removes a adenoid growth in two minutes without chloroform, and patient goes home without trouble.

He wants every person afflicted with deafness, loss of hearing or head noises. No matter how long they have been deaf or how deaf they are, they may be curable if the disease has not too badly injured the ear drum and middle ear. He has restored hearing to many people that have been deaf for years. He especially wants every person that is deaf in one ear and is gradually losing the hearing in the other; he says in most of these cases the disease is in the Eustachian Tube, causing partial closure or collapse of the tube and ear drum. Many of these cases get immediate relief from one free treatment. He wants every case of catarrh to come and try his treatment once free. It gives immediate relief. He says that catarrh is a constitutional disease and must be removed from the system. He says that every case of catarrh should be curable with this treatment. His treatment is something different from anything that you have used, and he wants you to try it and see if it won't help you. It is a combination of local absorbing remedies and certain forms of massage and then treatment for the blood and system. The patient uses this at home. The cost is very small. He has restored good hearing to many cases here, he accepts no case that he thinks is incurable, but if the structures are not seriously damaged by the disease, it may help or cure you. Try it and see. He has treated eye, ear, nose and throat diseases over 32 years and has treated thousands of cases. He invites every person suffering with these troubles to come and get his opinion. He thinks he can help them by giving them a thorough treatment. Tell them how long it will take them to get well, what and all about it. For no obligations to pay or take further treatment. Remember their information.

Barney Graham, who with Barney Stone, was knocked from a hayrack near the Chemical works Saturday night when the vehicle was struck by a motorcycle driven by Ray Randall of Aurora, is getting along as well as can be expected, his brother Samuel Graham said this morning. Graham received a cut in the temple three inches long and also was bruised about the head and body, his brother says.

Graham's version of the accident told by his brother Samuel is that Graham and Stone were returning from North Aurora on a hay rack. They carried a lantern for a light. They were riding on the railroad tracks. Hearing the chemical works, they were attracted by the noise of machinery coming behind them. The claim is that Randall was traveling at 15 miles an hour and that they turned to look as far out to the side as they could as they could. The sound of the machinery was striking the hay rack and knocked it over and it came running away.

Graham was thrown to the bottom on his head and sustained injuries. He was taken to the Joseph hospital in an automobile where his injuries were attended. When he was taken home, his brother said this morning said that his brother was unconscious for several hours before being taken home.

AURORA AFTER "JOIE" KERNAN

Former Oshkosh Star May Play Second Base for Local Semi-pro Club.

RAGEN COLTS HERE SUNDAY

Joe Kernan, former second baseman of the Oshkosh club in the Wisconsin-Illinois league, may be signed by Aurora. He has an offer to manage the Winnipeg club in the Northern league but has a good position in Chicago and would like to play Sunday ball in Aurora with his pal, Co Wright.

Manager Adams of the local club planned to get in touch with Kernan today and make him an offer. If Kernan is signed he will be played at second base and Anderson will be shifted back to his old job on third base. Wright, now taking care of the far corner, will be given his natural position, short stop, and Peterson will be put on the bench.

In the old days of the W-I league Kernan was a big favorite with the Aurora fans. He played on the Oshkosh club which won the pennant and was one of the best hitters in the league. He was drafted from Oshkosh by the White Sox but had the misfortune to fracture his right leg while on the training trip. Since then he has been playing semi-pro baseball.

Ragen's Colts, opponents of the local club in the opening game of the season at Fox River park next Sunday, will bring a big crowd of rooters. The Ragen club has 2,200 members and is one of the biggest organizations of the kind in Chicago. It was organized by Frank Ragen, county commissioner, and is named after him.

The Aurora club has all of the open dates of the Chicago City league teams. The Colts will be the first of the league teams to appear here.

A big flag pole is now being put up at the park and a flag raising will be one of the features of the opening game Sunday.

JONES GIVEN AN ERROR FOR MUFFING A FOUL

The Associated Press (AP) says that the St. Louis American League pitcher, Jones, was given an error for miffing a foul ball. Jones was playing the middle garden for Brooklyn. Joe Kelley was in left and Willie Keeler in right field. A foul ball was hit to the left field. Jones threw to drop close to the left field. Kelley and Jones raced after the ball and the latter got his hands on it, but the sphere fell from his grasp on foul territory.

ART MEIER SHOOT 714 IN STATE MEET

Former Member of Pittsburgh Pirates Helps His Team Land in Third Place.

Forty-seventh Street Five Taken Lead in Main Event With 2,916.

As anchor man for the Cardinals of the Cardinals league, he contributed 714 pins toward a team total of 2,810, which is the third highest score of the meet.

William Fetters, with 678 pins, anchored the Buckets of the Forty-seventh Street Business Men's league into first place in the five-man event. They totaled 2,816.

EAST AND WEST HIGHS TO BELOIT

Both Schools Enter Teams in Wisconsin College Intercollegiate Next Saturday.

Meet May Be Last of the Season for West High as Track Team is Gradually Drifting Away.

The East and West High meet scheduled for Saturday has been postponed till May 19 and the two schools will be represented at the Beloit Intercollegiate Saturday. The meeting of the Illinois Intercollegiate left both teams with an open date on May 19 and the athletic authorities switched the meet accordingly.

Both schools will be represented by small teams at Beloit. Coach Brownson plans on taking Captain McGinnis, Halpin, Greene and Long. The Red and Black will be upheld by Rees, Morrissey and Corbin and possibly a relay team. The two schools will compete in different classes, West High being in Class B and East High in Class A.

The meet Saturday may be the last for West High. The track team is gradually drifting away from the school. Nothing like snow in the spring time. When "Blink" Conway already among the many and several other fellows intending to enlist or go on farms, the outlook is not cheerful for a track team. Some of the men may stick until after the Lake Forest meet May 12, but that is expected to be the last of the season's schedule.

Coach Reed will start Robin Rees in the 100-yard dash and the half mile, Capt. Cyril Morrissey in the mile and Corwin in the hurdles. If his relay runners are in shape, a half mile relay team consisting of Rees, Reid, Corwin and Reas will be started.

Captain McGinnis of West High will run in the mile and the half, with Reesberg in the quarter and the 220-yard dash. Green will compete in the pole vault and Long in the hammer throw.

Neither does the young man limit that sort of foolhardiness to the merry springtime.

Many drinkers who plan to stop when they're had enough over estimate their capacity.

Built Court Room for Realists

It seems to be the keynote of motion picture productions at the present time. A producer is seldom happy unless he feels that he is getting every ounce of realism out of his picture that he can. A good example is the picture "Her Beloved Self" in which Pauline Frederick stars. A great deal of the action of this story transpires in court, and the director built a stage to the lamp of realism obtained permission to have his cameraman photograph the courtroom of the supreme court in the criminal courts building. With these photographs as a basis, the studio stage manager was instructed to construct an exact duplicate of the courtroom. When the set had been constructed the studio scene painter, who had accompanied the photographer to the court, had every detail of color including the famous palm tree above the judge's chair copied, with the result that the courtroom as it stands in the studio today is a bona fide replica of one of the best known court rooms in New York city.

Ann. Back to Screen. Ann Pennington, the little Zigfeld "Follies" star who created such a sensation on the screen when she made her motion picture debut in "Sally Snowflake," has returned from a long tour upon the stage and will again star upon the screen under the auspices of the Famous Player.

FRANK X. BUSHMAN AND BEVERLY WAYNE IN "THE GREAT SECRET"

One of the prettiest scenes in Metro's serial, "The Great Secret," came after Beverly Wayne (Beverly Bayne) has made use of the large fortune left to her by her father, William Montgomery Strong (Frank X. Bushman), in her paternal home. She is sitting at a piano playing an old melody when Strong, who has learned to love her in risking his life for her sake, declares his affection. But after the scene more perils threaten the young pair, and thus the great secret which is hidden in the last chapter of the serial begins slowly to unfold itself.

It so happened that the completion of "The Rainbow Princess," in which Miss Pennington starred, was delayed by bad weather in the beginning and that there were still several scenes to be taken when Mr. Zigfeld issued his call for the company to depart for Boston. As a result of this situation, Miss Pennington was forced to go to Boston for the opening of the "Follies" and then to return to New York over the first weekend when everything was held in readiness at the Famous Players studio and, by dint of hard work, the picture was completed before Miss Pennington returned to the Hub City again.

The picture upon which Miss Pennington will at once begin work is "The Boy Scout," a patriotic picture which was written especially for her. The career of Ann Pennington is one of the most interesting in stage and screen history. A native of Camden, N. J., she won a reputation as a dancer and actress in the little amateur shows in which she took part in her native city. Her fame soon spread across the river to Philadelphia and she was invited to participate in several amateur performances in the Quaker City. Then she began to study stage dancing and later joined the "Red Widow" company, making her professional debut in that play.

After touring all over the country in "The Red Widow," Miss Pennington appeared in several other shows before her dancing attracted the notice of Mr. Zigfeld and she was added to the "Follies." Here Miss Pennington scored a success and she has been a "Follies" star over three years.

"The Flight for Honor," the fifth of the "Jimmie Dale" series, the Grey Seal series is released. In this story the twin warns Jimmie Dale of the kidnapping of Steele's daughter and he goes to the rescue.

John Gray is writing subtitles for Dr. Koeler's institute.

HOLLWEG WILL SPEAK MAY 3

German Chancellor to Make Fresh Offer in Reichstag
Thursday, Report.

FRENCH REORGANIZING LINES

BULLETIN.

(By Associated Press, London Wire.)

The Hague, May 1, via London, 2:42 p. m.—Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, will make another peace offer in the Reichstag Thursday of this week, according to an announcement made today by the Berliner Tageblatt.

To Astonish World.
The world will be astonished by the moderation of the German peace terms, said the General-Anzeiger of Düsseldorf, Germany, quoting in a recent dispatch from Berlin a statement given out to foreign correspondents in Berlin. For several weeks it has been intimated that Germany might soon make another peace offer, and recent information from Berlin showed that Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg was expected soon to make an announcement in regard to international questions, and his heretofore no statement has come from a responsible quarter that a peace offer actually would be made.

For several months a controversy has been in progress in Germany as to the aims of the war. The socialists, vigorously opposed by the patriots, are urging a clear statement of Germany's peace terms, on the basis of no annexation or indemnities. The chancellor was recently reported to have decided to defer definite formulation of peace proposals.

The announcement of the chancellor's plan to make a peace offer Thursday is given added weight by the fact that it appears in the Tagblatt, one of the most widely circulated German newspapers.

British Hold.
London, May 1, 12:21 p. m.—"We made a successful raid last night north of Tyne," says today's official announcement from the Flanco-Belgian front, and captured a few prisoners. Elsewhere there was nothing of special importance.

French Checked.
Paris, May 1, via London, 1:45 p. m.—French storm an attack with two divisions failed yesterday because of Provençal and Aubertine, says the official statement issued today by the German army headquarters staff. Germans in this area, it is added, complete possession of their position.

the western front yesterday 25th and French airplanes and five bombs were forced down.

Bombard Dutch Town.
The Hague, May 1, via London 12:45 p. m.—The Telegraaf of Amsterdam says that the bombs which were dropped on Zierikzee did extensive damage and that the village is in ruins. More than 150 houses being smashed damaged. A terrible panic prevailed in the town, says the newspaper, intensified by the play of the searchlights operated by the airmen. It is declared that the bombs were dropped by mistake, the Telegraaf adds, but were purposely launched. The nationality of the airplane has not been established.

Advices from Sluyskyl state that last evening two German airplanes appeared above Haarlem and disappeared in a southwesterly direction.

French Hold Ground Gained.
Paris, May 1, 12:57 p. m.—The French are re-organizing the positions in the Champagne and no fighting occurred last night. Following is today's official account of military operations.

"South of the Oise we repulsed a German attack on one of our small posts in the region of Barfleur. Along the Chemin-des-Dames the artillery fighting was rather violent. In the sector between Troyon and Hurlbise patrol encounters occurred. A German reconnoitering party which attempted to approach our lines east of Hurlbise was driven back by our fire.

"In the Champagne the night passed in relative quiet in the sector of our attack, where our troops are organizing the captured positions. The number of prisoners captured by us in the fighting yesterday and actually enumerated is more than 400."

NEW MUNITION STRIKE FLAMES OUT IN GERMANY

(By Associated Press, London Wire.)

London, May 1, 4:42 p. m.—In the Ruhr region more than half the munition workers decided to strike today, wires the correspondent at The Hague of the Exchange Telegraph company. "Some of the great Krupp works are shut off from the rest of Germany and completely isolated from the world in order to prevent the slightest information about strikes at the Krupp works from leaking out. Strikers are gathered in small towns near the Dutch frontier."

OBSERVE DEWEY DAY

(Associated Press, London Wire.)
London, May 1.—Secretary Daniels, naval officers today made their first day of observation of the anniversary of the battle of Manila bay. The victor in that fight, Admiral Dewey, so long lives to receive the congratulations of his associates, they were told today.

War Situation

May day has dawned with the armed hosts of England, France and Germany still locked fast in the most tremendous struggle of the whole tremendous world war. But the eyes of the world are fixed for the moment on the stage behind the battle line where, inside the closely guarded "frontiers" of the central powers, the bursting of the long brewing storm of discontent is awaited with a mingling of fear and hope.

Extraordinary measures have been taken by the rulers of the central empires to prevent the outside world from knowing what is transpiring within their borders. No German newspaper is allowed to pass into a central country and for the last 10 days all persons have been forbidden to leave Germany. Thus the scanty and dubious news formerly gleaned from the censored German press or from casual travelers has been completely cut off and the Teutonic empire is almost as isolated from the rest of the world as was ancient Japan.

Reports from Switzerland of vague and indefinite authority, assert that the troubled conditions in Germany have been intensified by a widespread outbreak of typhus, said to be especially prevalent in the great industrial regions. The epidemic is attributed to the growing food scarcity but the story, like many other similar ones, lacks confirmation from any reliable source.

The same veil which has been drawn over events in Germany and Austria obscures the situation in Sweden, where a great nation-wide demonstration by the workers was also planned for today. Since the outbreak of a couple of weeks ago when rioting took place in Stockholm the only news received as to conditions in Sweden has been the bare announcement that a general strike had been ordered by the labor leaders for May day, coupled with a warning to the government against undue interference.

On the fighting front in France little change has taken place for some days. The French are striving hard in Champagne and have made some gains but without, as far as the official communications go, materially altering the situation. The fighting in Macedonia, which was resumed on a wide front last week, is still in progress, but information regarding it remains too indefinite to judge whether the allies are engaged in a major offensive. In Mesopotamia the British are pushing steadily forward but here, too, details are too meagre to throw a light on the extent of the campaign or the progress of the objective of the British command.

SHIP'S SURVIVORS WILL LAND TONIGHT

(By Associated Press, London Wire.)

London, May 1, 1:14 p. m.—The survivors of the American oil tank steamer Vacuum, who will arrive in Liverpool at midnight, include Robert Williams, Omar Gallen, W. Lundgren, A. Byl and Raymond Nunez. The details of the sinking on April 24 of the Vacuum have been received at the American embassy here but cannot be made public, it was explained today. The full particulars are in the hands of Rear Admiral Sims and the American naval attaché, who presumably have made reports upon them to Washington. The American consular officials will obtain the customary full affidavit from the officers and members of the crew who have already landed.

The following are other survivors who have been landed:
John Simpson, August Loto, William Grell, G. Witzum, Louis Burd, J. Mauchel, Marc Singros, Camille Dio.

Andrew Leslie J. Hutton, John Mekola, George Wilson and Frank Lemper.

Captain Believed Lost.
New York, May 1.—Officials of the Vacuum Oil company here, in response to a cable to London asking for further details on the sinking of their steamship, today received the following:

"Harris, captain, unofficially reported drowned. Further details later."

Gunnery Still Missing.
Washington, May 1.—Consul-General Skinner at London, reporting the destruction of the ship, confirmed that Lieutenant Thomas, commander of the naval gun crew, some of his men, Captain Harris and some of his crew still are missing and probably lost.

Seventeen of the ship's crew and three of the naval gunners all in one boat, were rescued.

Pending receipt of more detailed official information the navy department will not make public the names of the gun crew.

First official news of the submarine destruction of the American tanker Vacuum with loss of some of the American gun crew, was received today by the government.

CARRANZA BECOMES MEXICAN PRES

(By Associated Press, London Wire.)
Mexico City, May 1.—Carranza will take office as the first constitution of Mexico since the assassination of Francisco Madero on Feb. 23. At the same time the constitutional congress to be elected will convene in probably the most rapid of any important world.

At 6 o'clock this morning the national flag was hoisted on all public buildings and 21 guns heralded.

BRITON WARNS OF SHIP FAMINE

America Must Save Allies—
Present Tonnage Building Is Inadequate.

U-BOAT LOSSES ARE HEAVY

BULLETIN.

(By Associated Press, London Wire.)

Washington, May 1.—The United States has already placed a considerable amount of ship tonnage at the disposal of the entente allies. Lord Eustace Percy, ship expert with the British mission said today that the government had supplied certain vessels to be used according to the allies' needs but refused to indicate what their were if they were the seized German ships.

Cannot Keep Pace.
Lord Percy declared that the present rate of British construction of ships and the present estimate of American tonnage could not keep pace with the present rate of destruction by submarines.

"The balancing figure in the war struggle," said Lord Percy, "is tonnage the United States can supply."

A Agreement Reached.
Lord Percy's announcement was first intimation that the shipping conference had actually resulted in agreement. It was taken as a runner of a very wide degree of operation in which the present tonnage and the future building of this "common" will be pooled to the allies to defeat the German submarine menace.

Lord Percy stated that the mission had supplied the government with every detail of the shipping problem including allied tonnage, total destruction of the ships, the irreducible needs of the allies, the present construction abroad and the building plans. The American board, he said, has heartiest co-operation and understanding of the situation.

In Greater.
The shipping conference, he said, is a very great present British estimate American tonnage and construction.

And the only sets of the Britannica for sale anywhere in the world, printed on this beautiful paper, are right here in America.

Orders have greatly increased in the last month—the sales have jumped to an average of more than 2,000 sets a week. This fact makes it certain that the few remaining sets will not last beyond 2 or 3 weeks.

If you know the Britannica, know how useful it will be to you, and are quite sure you should own a set, order it immediately. This is your only assurance of getting it.

We are giving you warning NOW to save you any disappointment in never getting one of these very last sets.

In this case when the last set is gone you will not be able to buy a first-hand set of this great library of knowledge, printed on genuine India paper, at any price.

Don't wait until the eleventh hour. Don't put off ordering until "tomorrow." Take the time today to send in the "reserve order" coupon and then you will be sure of getting a set.

AURORA WOMEN IN BABY WEEK

Are Co-operating in National Movement on Care of Infants in Summer.

FINE EXHIBITION PROMISED

Aurora women are to co-operate in the national movement this week looking to the spread of information regarding the care of babies during the summer months.

On account of the restrictions placed by the state board of health owing to the infantile paralysis epidemic last year, there will be no clinic as a year ago.

Instead the Metropolitan Life Insurance company has sent out from its Chicago office a very extensive booth arrangement giving all kinds of information regarding the care of the babies. This part of the display will be in the direct charge of W. H. Klenke, the deputy superintendent of the Metropolitan.

This booth is a very interesting affair and the company pays all the expense of sending it out and setting it up. There are 12 wings to the booth with panels three feet, three inches by seven feet with decorative towers at the front. The Metropolitan also gives out literature on the care of babies printed in five different languages.

North Broadway Rooms.
William Weigman, owner of the building at 27 North Broadway where the old Miller cigar store was located for so many years, has donated the use of the room to the women for the exhibit.

The exhibit will be open each day from 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock in the evening, commencing tomorrow. Of course it will be free and all interested are urged to attend. The exhibit will also be open next Sunday.

M. Smely has donated some palms for decorations, and the Blaver Furniture company tables and chairs.

Mrs. J. R. Adams is chairman of the committee in charge and is assisted by the presidents of all the woman's societies in the city interested in child welfare work.

DROP CHRIS SORG WILL SUIT BY AGREEMENT

The suit filed in the circuit court at Geneva to contest the will of the late Christian Sorg was dismissed yesterday as a result of an agreement by the opposing forces.

It was announced today that a new suit will be started asking that the circuit court construe the will of the eccentric Auroran who made his will not long before his death. He was 91 years old when he died.

The estate left by Sorg is valued at $75,000. The will on file made bequests to many relatives and to several institutions, including the Aurora hospital, the Northwestern college at Naperville, and the German M. E. church of Aurora.

The will provided for a direct distribution of only $27,000 of a supposed $75,000 estate.

BIG DAY FOR JUNK MEN

Junk men reaped a rich harvest in Aurora today when small mountains of rubbish and junk were piled in front of nearly every home in the city. The junk collectors were out at daylight, picking up everything that could be sold.

Bottles, copper bottoms of boilers, old iron and numbers of other articles were carted away by the junk men before the city trustees started the cleanup work of hauling away the rubbish. One man sold $45 worth of junk which he had gathered from the rubbish piles before noon.

Superintendent of Streets DuBell announced today that the city teams will be kept busy until Saturday night, if necessary, in order to have all of the rubbish removed before Sunday.

Join Reserve Corps.—Edward Zabrickle of Elgin, son of the late John Zabrickle, druggist, who was at one time in business at Geneva, has enrolled in the United States officers' reserve corps at Fort Sheridan and will go there within a few days for training.

WHY not give your lad the same training?

"When I was a growing lad, and came upon many words in my reading that I did not understand, my mother, instead of giving me the definition when I applied to her, uniformly sent me to the dictionary to learn it, and in this way I gradually learned many things besides the meaning of the individual word in question—among other things, how to use a dictionary, and the great pleasure and advantage there might be in the use of the dictionary. Afterwards, when I went to the village school, my chief diversion, after lessons were learned and before they were recited, was in turning over the pages of the 'Unabridged' of those days. Now the most modern Unabridged—the NEW INTERNATIONAL—gives me a pleasure of the same sort. So far as my knowledge extends, it is at present the best of the one-volume dictionaries, and quite sufficient for all ordinary uses. Even those who possess the splendid dictionaries in several volumes will find it a great convenience to have this, which is so compact, so full, and so trustworthy as to leave, in most cases, little to be desired."—Albert S. Cook, Ph.D., LL.D., Professor of the English Language and Literature, Yale Univ., April 12, 1911.

BATAVIA PLEDGES FUND FOR FACTORY

Industrial Association Will Quickly Raise $5,000 Necessary to Get Tractor Co.

New Industry to Send Men Out in Two Days to Begin Work at Moving Machinery.

Batavia, Ill., May 1.—At the meeting of the Batavia Industrial association last night it was definitely decided that the association would secure the Curtis Form-A-Tractor company of Chicago for Batavia once.

Despite the fact that the wealth was impossible for many members of the association to attend and assist in the work of raising the $5,000 which is necessary to bring the factory here, the board of directors found that there were plenty of people willing to donate to the sum at about $5,500 was subscribed during the evening. The committee report every one approached willing. It is expected to have the sum complete within the next three days.

The board of directors declared that the factory was too great a task to Batavia to allow $5,000 to stand in the way of getting it. On three days are given to collect the sum.

The factory will occupy the Batavia Engineering Works plant, Main street and as they wish 40,000 feet for floor space it will be necessary to enlarge this plant at once. The tractor company map will come here within the next 48 hours and will begin to make plans for moving machinery. This is considered one of the biggest achievements of the Batavia Industrial association and many cities have been making good offers.

The company will employ about 100 men to begin with and it is expected that there will be a number of families added to the city soon, including that of Mr. Wright, head of the firm, former superintendent of the Baldwin Locomotive company.

NORTH-WESTERN R. R. OFFERING GARDENS

Company's Entire Right of Way to Families of Section Men and Other Workers

Encourage Growing of Vegetables and Grains and Give Advice on Cultivation Free

In response to President Wilson's appeal "to turn in hoists to the farms," emphasizing the importance of an adequate food supply as the superlative need of the United States, the Chicago & North-Western railroad will give its "bit" by turning over the company's entire right of way to its thousands of workers for the purpose of raising products for the maintenance of such employees and their families.

A circular letter issued by the management of the Chicago & North-Western railroad has been sent to all division superintendents, reading as follows:

Chicago, April 18.
Circular Letter No. 1332.
Division Superintendents:

With living expenses constantly rising you should, when consistent, encourage section foremen, agents or others, to utilize available pieces of right-of-way, that can be thus used without disadvantage or inconvenience to the company, for raising products for the maintenance of such employees and their families. This practice exists now to some extent, and it would seem advisable to extend it further reasonably.

When arrangements of this kind are made, advise the land department as a matter of record and they will authorize free rental for such piece of property as employees use for the sustenance of themselves and families.

(Signed) W. J. TOWNE.

Will Give Advice.

The railway will also give advice regarding the planting and culture of such gardens, especially with respect to what vegetables are best raised in various localities, requesting that special attention be given to the raising of potatoes, cabbage, carrots, parsnips and other vegetables which will provide food through the winter. This work is being carried on in co-operation with the various universities and agricultural colleges in states thru which the road traverses.

In co-operating with the various agricultural experiment stations, the Chicago & North-Western railroad, has posted "farm emergency" posters, appealing to the farmers to "serve the nation, more food this year is patriotic" by producing the utmost this season in growing staple goods, and to avoid trying experimental crops.

Particular attention of farmers is being called to the adaptability of the soil to potato growing in the various regions, and in addition large tracts of heretofore undeveloped land is now being turned to grain growing, vegetable raising or dairying as the result of the railway's work.

The Chicago & North-Western railroad has over 10,000 miles of railway, which runs thru the richest agricultural country in America. Allowing about twenty-five feet on each side of the railway for farming and gardening purposes, it is estimated that if all the ground available by the company's liberal offer should be planted by employees, it would comprise over 6,000 acres. The number of employees who will probably take advantage of their company's offer in their efforts to keep pace with the steadily increasing cost of foodstuffs is expected to represent a small army, consisting of all classes, from the section men residing along the line to the officials living at the division points.

Also Helping Farmers.
Representatives of the road are also co-operating with the farmers in obtaining labor to fill the gaps occasioned by the needs of farm workers who are enlisting in the army.

The Chicago & North-Western railroad, in performing this patriotic duty for its employees, not only realizes that anything done to meet the demands of the American people and increase the production of commodities in this country is vitally important, but that it is a step in the right direction to meet the appeal of President Wilson that the "railways are the arteries of the nation's life, and that upon them rests the immense responsibility of seeing to it that these arteries suffer no obstruction of any kind, no inefficiency, or slackened power." Their slogan is, "To Farm! To Farm!"

SLAY PEACE TALK DISTORTED BY PRESS

From a Petrograd Telegram (AP).
Petrograd, April 23, via London, April 24.—It is evident from foreign telegrams that the attitude of the Russian democracy toward peace has been misunderstood and distorted by the foreign press. The desire for peace has become more widespread and articulate since the revolution, but it is based on entirely different conceptions from those entertained during the old regime.

These new conceptions have nothing to do with a premature peace with Germany. As a matter of fact they have not yet taken any definite form, simply emanating from the new spirit of democracy which wishes to build a foundation for a durable world peace. The idea of a separate peace died here with the old regime. There is no talk of this even among the most advanced socialistic factions. These are eager for peace and favor a conference of the working men of the other countries at war, but, until such an event is possible, unanimously declare their patriotic desire to continue the war.

TO ASK DISTRIBUTION OF ALL SLAV LANDS

[By Associated Press Leased Wire.]
New York, April 20.—A dispatch received here today by the Jewish Daily Forward from its Petrograd correspondent says that the Russian congress of the army at the front, in session at Minsk, "has decided to ask for the abolition of private ownership of land and distribution of all land among the peasant population."

A stolen kiss offers its own reward.

GEN. PETAIN APPOINTED FRENCH CHIEF OF STAFF

[By Associated Press Leased Wire.]
Paris, April 20, 1918.—The appointment of General Petain as chief of staff is generally welcomed as a timely reform which had long been advocated by military experts. General Petain is a technical adviser to the government, will occupy very much the same position as Gen. Sir William Robertson in London and will be responsible for the general conduct of operations wherever French troops are engaged.

In addition to this appointment, it is understood that the government contemplates various other measures of reorganization, based on an examination of the military situation and the lessons taught by the recent operations. The Petit Petain says that certain sections where working has been shown to be defective will be overhauled and that changes will be made among leaders; those talents could be more judiciously used. The general adds that this will be done "without prejudice to the disciplining of those who, whatever their previous services, have committed faults and made mistakes."

BOY SCOUTS GIVEN GROUND FOR POTATOES

Each member of Troop 9 of the Boy Scouts of the Fourth Street Methodist church has pledged himself to raise enough potatoes to feed one soldier. About an acre of ground has been secured on the Evans property in Jackson street, and the boys will be given proper instruction in gardening by Scoutmaster Max G. F. Courrier. There are 20 boys in the troop. The Reverend Mr. Courrier said yesterday, "Perhaps we cannot become a part of this conflict, but nevertheless we have a part to play. If my country says I can serve better by raising potatoes, I shall do that. I am encouraging every boy an every man to take some part in raising vegetables so that next winter, as hardships come, we shall at least help some one by our contributions."

NEW "Q" GENERAL COUNSEL

Oliver Martin Spencer of St. Joseph, Mo., has been appointed general counsel of the Burlington railroad, succeeding the late Chester Dawes. He has been general counsel for the Missouri district.

Mr. Spencer entered railway service October 1, 1892, with the Missouri Pacific as a clerk in the office of the general southern agent at Chattanooga. After six years of service in this department, during which time he was given several minor promotions, he was appointed traveling passenger agent at Memphis, Tenn. Five years later he was transferred to Denver. In 1905 he was promoted to a position in Chicago.

MUST SAVE TIN

[By Associated Press Leased Wire.]
Washington, April 30.—The supply of tin cans for products, the department is seeking to have hoard glass or other cans substituted for this by use of non-perishable articles tobacco, coffee, tea, and powder, powdered paint, oil, lard, cheese, butter powder. The department announced that many canners have agreed to "do their share" tin can stocks, of which canners demand 40 per cent more than manufacturers are able to supply.

PLAY AT KANEVILLE

A characteristically American plot entitled "Deacon Dubbs" was given Saturday evening at the Kaneville high school by the energetic lit community club, composed of residents of Kaneville and vicinity. The purpose of raising funds which to repair the abandoned B. & N. church of Kaneville with idea of utilizing it as a community club house.

The cast was as follows:

Anna Coleman, his nephew, Benjamin Ames.

Edward Crawley, a wolf in sheep's clothing, H. V. Osborne.

Major McNutt, auctioneer and judge of the peace, R. H. Hardy.

Deaconess Jones, a country product, George Lyle.

Rose Halcigh, the little school-ma'am, Iola Greenhill.

The club has been doing some very good patriotic work. E. D. Spencer, in particular having demonstrated considerable talent, and in the person of the thirteenth deacon, was quite professional. The lady with the eyes, the deacon was especially good, with the trying part of the villainy well given by Mr. Osborne. In all parts were well taken. Mrs. Phelps directed the play, Benjamin Humiston was the prompter, and DeLoose Elanders was in charge of music.

The scenes were typically Yankee with an auction and a husking and a rustic wedding, while the element was not lacking. During the husking scene there was some good singing, closing with the singing of the Virginia reel. A solo was furnished also by Vernon Phelps.

There were some of the nation's songs, while the high school orchestra furnished excellent music.

TODAY'S BEAUTY TALK

You can enjoy a delightful shampoo with very little effort and trifling cost, if you get from druglist a package of canthrox and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is just the top of the head. Your shampoo is now ready. Just pour a little time on the scalp and hair up both are entirely covered by daintily perfumed preparation. It thoroughly dissolves and removes every bit of dandruff, excess oil and dirt. After rinsing, the hair dries quick with a brilliancy that makes it heavier than it is, and takes on rich lustre and a softness that makes it a pleasure.

WHEAT DEPRESSED ON CANADA IMPORTS

Prospects of Increased Exports Duty Free From North-west Makes Bulls Cautious.

Corn Weakening With Wheat—Oats Demand Only Scattered—Provisions Strengthened.

[By Associated Press Leased Wire.]
Chicago, May 1.—Prospects of increased imports from Canada tended today to depress the wheat market here. Bulls were also inclined to be cautious in view of Washington advice that legislation had been planned looking to emergency authorization of maximum and minimum prices. Besides, field reports indicated condition of the winter crop. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1/2 higher, with May at $2.71 and July at $2.56 1/2, were followed by sharp declines that in some cases amounted to more than 1/2.

In the last hour of trading the market plunged headlong downward on account of announcement that the Swiss minister at Washington, representing Germany, had asked for a conference with President Wilson, that immense strikes were in progress in Germany and that Chancellor von Brüning-Hollweg would make a peace offer Thursday. At the closing point of the break, May was off 1/2, the market closed demoralized, 1/2 1/4 net lower with May at $2.57 1/2 and July at $2.32 1/4 @ 2.32.

Corn weakened with wheat. Orders to buy were scarce. After opening 1/2 off to 3/4 up, the market underwent a decided general sag.

The late smash in wheat prices carried corn along. Closing quotations were unsettled, 1/2 1/4 net decline. In oats as in corn, demand was only a scattered character. The May option, however, continued firm. Packers' buying strengthened provision. Gains were chiefly in lard and ribs.

LEADING STOCKS SCORE ADVANCES IN WALL ST.

[By Associated Press Leased Wire.]
New York, May 1.—Almost without exception market leaders recorded advances of 1 to 2 points before profit taking became effective. Shipings and motors also increased their early advantage. Bulls gave promise of general improvement but sold off abruptly on word from Washington that the interstate commerce commission advises extreme conservatism respecting dividend returns during the war. Union Pacific, St. Paul, Atchafalpa and Reading reacted an average of a point and other important stocks were disposed to ease. Partial rallies at noon were again forfeited. Bonds were firm, although United States coupon 5's lost 1/4 per cent on a single sale.

WEAK, NERVOUS, RUNDOWN HEALTH

Aurora Man Tells How the Inter-State Doctors
Cured Him.

SAYS HE NOW FEELS
FINE AND HAS MORE "PEP"

Weak, nervous men and women who are run down in health will be glad to read the signed statements of prominent people living in Aurora who have been cured by the Neuro-pathic method, the new system of treatment of the Inter-State Doctors, the specialists who have their Aurora office on the second floor of 105 Main street, over Holmes Bros. drug store.

If you need more strength, better digestion and a general building up of the blood and the entire nervous system you are invited to try this treatment one time free. If afflicted with a nervous trouble of any kind, even where there is partial paralysis of any part of the body they want you to try this new method once free and see if it won't help you. No matter how far away you live from Aurora they want every case of neuritis, arthritis, catarrh and rheumatism to come and try this treatment once free. One treatment gives immediate relief because it is something different from anything you have had, a specific treatment for the nerves that restores vitality to the weak parts. Then a special treatment that removes the poison from the blood, gets it out of the system. The patient uses this at home. The cost is very small.

According to their system no more operations for goiter or thick neck, cataracts, tumors, piles, etc., as these diseases are treated without the knife or pain by the Neuro-pathic method. They especially invite people who have suffered long from a complication of diseases. Chronic disease or weakness, high blood pressure, or any weakness of the heart and those afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble—especially where they have disturbances of the stomach causing indigestion and fermentation that is throwing extra work on the kidneys and bladder. Those who can be helped will receive a thorough treatment free and be told how long it will take to get them well, what it will cost and all about it. You will be under no obligation to take further treatment unless you wish.

Mr. Weirich tells in his letter how a complication of troubles wears one down until one grows weaker as the condition tends to become chronic, nourishing itself on the patient's very life blood. There are many who are afflicted in this way and to whom the Neuro-pathic method of the Inter-State Doctors points the way to a real cure.

Aurora, Ill., Mar. 24, 1917.

Dear Doctors:—
For a number of years I was afflicted with stomach trouble, nervousness and a rundown condition. I had no appetite whatever. What little I did eat I could not digest as it would form gas on my stomach. My kidneys and liver were also affected and I had pain in my back and side. I always felt tired and worn out and was pale and anemic, with no ambition or energy to do anything.

My condition began to get very serious and I decided to try the Inter-State Doctors as I had heard so much about them. It was not long after taking their treatment that I noticed improvement, and now I eat anything I want, my cheeks are red as an apple, my nerves are steady and I sleep well and have the best appetite I have had for years. I have steadily gained in strength and feel so well and full of energy and ambition that it is a pleasure for me to recommend the Inter-State Doctors to all in search of health.

WEST SCHOOL BOARD MEETS TO ORGANIZE

Empowers Superintendent and Principal to Give Credits to Boys in Army.

McDowell and Merrick Re-elected—
Take No Action on Farm Work.

The west side board of education last night left the matter of granting credit for the semester's work to the boys who enlisted in the army to the superintendent and principal of West High with power to act as best the individual case. The board made this general ruling for all boys who may enlist or leave school to work on farms.

New Board Organized.
The board organized for the year at the meeting. Dr. D. E. Culver succeeded John M. Raymond as president and Mrs. George McGinnis succeeded James Shaw, who also retired as secretary. His successor as secretary will be elected at a special meeting of the board to be held Saturday night, when the teachers for the year will also be elected.

Superintendent S. K. McDowell and Principal K. C. Merrick of West High were re-elected for the coming year with increases in salary. The salary of Supt. McDowell was advanced from $3,500 to $3,750 and that of Principal Merrick from $1,550 to $2,000. The board decided not to take any action encouraging the boys of the school to seek places on farms. The matter will be left to the parents of the boys and the school authorities.

INJUNCTION BARS ROE FROM MOVING HOUSES

A temporary injunction restraining Lawrence Roe, a house mover, from conducting his business in Aurora, was granted by the circuit court yesterday at Geneva on application of August Malmgren of Garfield avenue. Malmgren stated that he owns 15 shares (value $1,500) of the Aurora Construction & House Moving company, which he purchased from Roe et al., and that there was an agreement that Roe et al. should not engage in the business for a period of three years after the sale of the Aurora Construction company. The deal was closed March 11, 1915. It is claimed that Roe has engaged in the business contrary to the alleged agreement. With less than one year of the alleged agreement, to run the temporary injunction is for that unexpired period.

MILK TRAIN EARLIER

The milk train No. 1 on the Burlington will change its running time next Sunday, May 6. It was announced in The Beacon-News a few nights ago that this train would probably have its running time shortened.

Orders were received at the local office of the Burlington this morning stating that the train, operating under the new schedule will leave Chicago at 12:30 p. m. and arrive in Aurora at 8:17 p. m., leaving Aurora at 8:30 and arriving at Shabbona its destination at 2:40. The train is now leaving Aurora at 4:20 p. m., two hours later.

The order states that this is the only change of time in passenger trains to be made at this time but rumors are to the effect that several of the Burlington passenger trains are soon to be taken out of service entirely, as will be done on other roads. The railroads are co-operating with the government and this is to be done in order to have shipping facilities in good condition to handle troops and supplies speedily.

By the change of schedule in the milk train the crew, which leaves Shabbona every morning and makes a round trip to Chicago, will be cut down two hours each day in their time.

BIG ROCK SOLDIER WOUNDED IN SERVICE

Private Arthur Sebby of Big Rock, a member of the Illinois national guard stationed "somewhere in Illinois" is the first Kane county resident to be injured since the war by Germany against this country was recognized by this government one month ago.

Sebby was fired at by an unseen enemy while on duty at Rock Island protecting the Rock Island arsenal. Fortunately the enemy made a poor shot, for the bullet merely grazed the young soldier's hand.

Obituary

An Epitaph.

In memory of Frank Comfort, who passed away April 1, 1917.

(By Mary E. Myron.)
When life looked so bright,
In its setting,
And hope shone so bright,
As a star.

Then a cloud gathered small
In the twilight,
So, tiny just seen
From afar.

But as days passed it grew
With the shadows
And darkened more
Lifted the gloom.

That settled and stayed
And grew stronger,
Showing the end
Was the tomb.

Ah, yes, but your soul,
In its fitting Went straight to
The mansion above.

And we know that
Our Father in heaven,
Will keep you
With all that we love.

The Business of Being a Housewife

By Jean Prescott Adams

If you have questions to ask or special subjects that you wish covered in these columns, write to Mrs. Adams, care of this office, and we will gladly take them up. If your difficulties are too personal, or lack general interest, Mrs. Adams will reply by letter, if a stamp is enclosed to answer.

"I see by the papers we housewives are to have an opportunity to serve Uncle Sam in a very effective manner. We are to go on a campaign of conservation of food to meet war conditions," said the enthusiastic Mrs. Young Wife to her friend, the would-be Red Cross nurse. "Yes," was the enthusiastic reply. "You home folks will feed our boys and we will take care of them in the field. I'm so glad we can all help in this terrible crisis."

"I'm going to begin my conservation at home and I'm going to begin with butter," said Mrs. Young Wife. "Butter costs more than any other item on my bills. I just can't afford it. John won't like it but I will just have to get accustomed to using oleomargarine. I dare say we will get accustomed to many substitutes before the war ends and we can hope for a return to normal prices again."

"I attended a cooking school a few weeks ago and heard a food expert tell all about oleomargarine—how it was first made when the French butter supply was short after the Franco-Prussian war. Americans took up the idea and improved upon the product adding cream or butter to give butter flavor."

"The cooking teacher made cakes and none of us could tell the difference between those made with oleomargarine and those made with butter. Since that time I've used it in making cakes and seasoning vegetables. This cooking expert said it could well be used as a spread on bread and I've decided to order it instead of butter hereafter."

"Well," replied the Red Cross nurse, "I'm not doing any buying or home managing yet, but I too learned something new at a cooking school. I learned about the new vegetable shortening known as Vegatole which can be used for both shortening and deep fat frying. It is also an economical product. Why don't you order that, too?"

"Tell me about it, do! I'm anxious to learn all possible about good fats which are inexpensive."

"Vegatole is a pure vegetable shortening recommended as the alternative for pure lard during high price times. It is about the consistency of a good lard and can be cut into pastry or creamed in cake making."

"Mother used it in frying doughnuts and if you housewives give us as many things as these in your pre-cooking I shall be winning our war time conservation when I'm nursing at I ever get there," replied the nurse.

Spring Drinks.

Coming of the warm weather, every home manager looking to the "whetting" of appetites of her family, by little planning and adding the necessary "pop" serving a tempting fruit drink, one of the many varied drinks, which are in vogue now that the big national producers have created such an extensive industry in making this delicious, economical and pure drink.

Then, too, the attractively colored and served cool drink takes the place quite universally in warm weather of the customary afternoon tea, coffee or chocolate. If these beverages are served at all, they are served chilled and iced. It must be remembered that drinks made of fruit juices have, besides their refreshing and appetizing qualities, a certain point of food value in their mineral salts and sugar contents. Especially is this the case with grape juice. Every housewife will be interested in saving the following recipes which will save her time and trouble, because they have been carefully tested as to flavor and exact amounts needed in making the mixtures.

FRUIT LEMONADE: One cup simple juice, one-half cup pineapple juice, one-half cup orange juice, one cup grape juice, one cup water and one-fourth cup sugar. Dissolve sugar in water, add the fruit juices and serve ice cold.

GRAPE PUNCH NO. 1: One-half cup of juice from canned peaches, one-half cup juice from canned pears, one-half cup juice from canned apples, the juice of three lemons, the juice of one grapefruit, one cup of water, two cups of grape juice and one-fourth cup of sugar. Dissolve sugar in the water, add to the fruit juices. Allow to stand in the refrigerator so that the blend may be perfect. Serve very cold, with cracked ice if possible.

GRAPE PUNCH NO. 2: One-fourth cup of maraschino juice, one-half cup of lemon juice, one-fourth cup of orange juice, one cup water, one-fourth cup of sugar and two cups of grape juice. Dissolve sugar in water, add fruit juices. Leave in the refrigerator several hours to blend the flavors. Serve very cold. Cracked ice in the glass adds to the effect of the beverage.

GRAPE JUICE PUNCH WITH TEA: One cup orange pekoe tea, one cup lemon juice, two cups grape juice, one-fourth cup sugar. Dissolve sugar in tea, add fruit juices. Place in refrigerator to cool and blend. Serve very cold.

A Forenoon "Bite": Forenoon "Bite" for help and self. Thin sandwiches of summer sausage and a glass of grape juice.

BAKED HAM: Cover the ham with cold water and let it stand long enough to loosen the skin, probably three or four hours. After removing the skin add one teaspoon of vinegar, one cup of hot water in which one teaspoon of dry mustard has been dissolved. Bake slowly two hours, basting frequently. Cover the ham with coarse brown sugar and stick cloves into the fat about an inch apart. Do not baste again until the sugar has formed a thick crust. Cook about an hour.

LEAF CAKE: Work one-third cup pure leaf lard until creamy, using a wooden cake spoon, and add gradually, while beating constantly, two cups brown sugar; then add two squares unsweetened chocolate (melted in saucepan placed over hot water), and two eggs beaten until light.

Add alternatively, to first mixture one-half cup milk, and two cups pastry flour, mixed and sifted with one teaspoon soda and one-fourth teaspoon salt. Turn into greased and floured tin, and bake in a moderate oven 25 minutes.

SPANISH RICE: Fry three thin slices of bacon until crisp. Break up into small bits. Add a teaspoonful of onion, sliced thin and minced, and a cupful of canned tomatoes. Let simmer and add a cup and a half of boiled rice, a few slices of sweet green pepper, a desert spoon of salt and a dash of paprika. Cook until rice is heated through. Serve hot.

FIGS A LA REINI: Place slices of yesterday's cake in individual dishes and moisten with juice of canned figs. Cut canned whole figs in half, place two halves on each piece of cake and cover with whipped cream or meringue.

"A Burnt Offering."

Did you ever see a mortgage? Not much to see—just paper. But while not very big, sometimes it cuts a great big caper.

We used to have one of our home. The man who put it there came round one time, when Pa was sick.

I don't think that was fair. Ma sure was lookin' sorrowful. And in an awful hurry. But Pa spoke up and said, "My dear, I wish you wouldn't worry."

Ma tried to be more cheerful then. And wiped her tears away. But she didn't act quite natural. Beginnin' from that day.

"Bout three years from next spring." And she sent me with the money. She seemed so—well, so scary like, I couldn't call it funny.

But Pa got well and strong again. And worked like everything. And once I heard them talkin' low—"Bout three years from next spring."

We didn't go to many shows; just now and then a treat. We didn't wear real stylish clo's. But we had enough to eat.

At last, one night, when Pa came home, With something in his hand: A wavin' it above his head—Whistlin' to beat the band.

He says to Ma, "We're free once more. The last cent has been paid. And you're to have the swellest hat That every yet was made."

"When supper's over, Son," said he. You build a roarin' fire. And we'll add something to it. That will make the flames go higher."

The fire was built and I was told To heave that mortgage in it. And—Puff!—it went right up in smoke. In just about a minute.

I guess Ma cried a little bit. Pa grinned, and sort o'swore. "I'll bet that flash dot meanly thing Won't make her cry no more."

Then Ma kissed Pa and kissed me too. With cheeks a growin' red. And Pa said, "Son, our job is done. It's time to go to bed."

A Persian Marriage.

The marriage ceremonies which solemnize a wedding among the Mohammedans of Persia are among the most curious and elaborate in the world. Any American bridegroom who dislikes what men are wont to describe as "fuss and bother" of a great wedding should regard the case of his Persian brother and take heart.

The Persian ceremony may take from one to three weeks for its completion. Often the betrothal is a matter of many years standing, having been arranged by the parents when the principals are still young children. When the time for the marriage arrives, the guests are summoned by heralds, who go about the neighboring villages, bearing gifts of apples, cloves and roses to accompany the invitations. When some powerful personage is to be invited, the other of the groom does not send herald but goes himself, bearing a rich present as he can afford to give.

Before the wedding, there is also a curious little business arrangement entered into. This is the matter of "kaben," or the price of divorce. A sum is agreed upon in advance by the payment of which the future husband can put aside his wife at any time. When it is desired to make divorce difficult, the kaben is set at some impossible sum or commodity. The husband may be required to give the bride a hundred-weight of mor-quito wings, or one of his arms or legs before he can divorce her, a condition which generally makes the marriage a permanent affair.

The actual wedding festivities extend over days. The guests are given rooms in the house and served with rich foods and sweetmeats. Musicians and dancing girls are hired to entertain them, and if the families of the bride and groom are rich, the sport of the Persians may be staged by a pair of professional jesters.

After the celebration has lasted three or four days, the bride rides heavily veiled to her new home, on horseback. She is followed by porters bearing her dowry on their backs. The wedding celebration then continues for several days longer.
